SCOPE AND PAYMENT OF TAX

3. Scope of tax.—

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall be charged, levied and paid a tax known as sales tax at the rate of sixteen per cent of the value of--

- (a) taxable supplies made by a registered person in the course or furtherance of any taxable activity carried on by him; and
- (b) goods imported into Pakistan.

(1A) ()

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1):--

- (a) taxable supplies specified in the Third Schedule shall be charged to tax at the rate of sixteen per cent of the retail price which alongwith the amount of sales tax shall be legibly, prominently and indelibly printed or embossed by the manufacturer on each article, packet, container, package, cover or label, as the case may be:

Provided that the Federal Government, may, by notification in the official Gazette, exclude any taxable supply from the said Schedule or include any taxable supply therein; and

- (b) the Federal Government may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may impose, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that in respect of any goods or class of goods imported into or produced or any taxable supplies made by a registered person or a class of registered persons, the tax shall be charged, collected and paid in such manner and at such higher or lower rate or rates as may be specified in the said notification.

(3) The liability to pay the tax shall be,--

- (a) in the case of supply of goods, of the person making the supply, and
- (b) in the case of goods imported into Pakistan, of the person importing the goods.

(3A) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a) sub-section (3), the Federal Government may, by a notification in the official Gazette, specify the goods in respect of which the liability to pay tax shall be of the person receiving the supply.

(4) Omitted

(5) The Federal Government may, in addition to the tax levied under sub-section (1), sub-section (2) and sub-section (4), levy and collect such extra amount of tax not exceeding fifteen per cent of the value of such goods or class of goods and on such persons or class of persons, in such mode, manner and at time, and subject to such conditions and limitations as it may, by rules, prescribe.

(6) The Federal Government or the Board may, in lieu of the tax under sub-section (1), by notification in the official Gazette, levy and collect such amount of tax as it may deem fit on any supplies or class of supplies or on any goods or class of goods and may also specify the mode, manner or time of payment of such amount of tax.

(7) The Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify any person or class of persons as withholding agent for the purpose of deduction and deposit of tax at the specified rate in such manner and subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Federal Government may prescribe in this behalf.

3A. Omitted

3AA. Omitted

3AAA. Omitted

3B. Collection of excess sales tax etc.—

(1) Any person who has collected or collects any tax or charge, whether under misapprehension of any provision of this Act or otherwise, which was not payable as tax or charge or which is in excess of the tax or charge actually payable and the incidence of which has been passed on to the consumer, shall pay the amount of tax or charge so collected to the Federal Government.

(2) Any amount payable to the Federal Government under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be an arrear of tax or charge payable under this Act and shall be recoverable accordingly and no claim for refund in respect of such amount shall be admissible.

(3) The burden of proof that the incidence of tax or charge referred to in sub-section (1) has been or has not been passed to the consumer shall be on the person collecting the tax or charge.

4. Zero rating.—

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3, the following goods shall be charged to tax at the rate of zero per cent:--

- (a) goods exported, or the goods specified in the Fifth Schedule;
- (b) supply of stores and provisions for consumption aboard a conveyance proceeding to a destination outside Pakistan as specified in section 24 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969);
- (c) such other goods as the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify:
- (d) such other goods as may be specified by the Federal Board of Revenue through a general order as are supplied to a registered person or class of registered persons engaged in the manufacture and supply of zero-rated goods.

The Sales Tax Act, 1990

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply in respect of a supply of goods which --

- (i) are exported, but have been or are intended to be re-imported into Pakistan; or
- (ii) have been entered for export under Section 131 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), but are not exported; or
- (iii) have been exported to a country specified by the Federal Government, by Notification in the official Gazette:

Provided further that the Federal Government may, by a notification in the official Gazette, restrict the amount of credit for input tax actually paid and claimed by a person making a zero-rated supply of goods otherwise chargeable to sales tax.

5. Change in the rate of tax.—

If there is a change in the rate of tax--

- (a) a taxable supply made by a registered person shall be charged to tax at such rate as is in force at the time of supply;
- (b) imported goods shall be charged to tax at such rate as is in force,--
 - (i) in case the goods are entered for home consumption, on the date on which a goods declaration is presented under section 79 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969);
 - (ii) in case the goods are cleared from warehouse, on the date on which a goods declaration for clearance of such goods is presented under section 104 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969):

Provided that where a goods declaration is presented in advance of the arrival of the conveyance by which the goods are imported, the tax shall be charged as is in force on the date on which the manifest of the conveyance is delivered:

Provided further that if the tax is not paid within seven days of the presenting of the goods declaration under section 104 of the Customs Act, the tax shall be charged at the rate as is in force on the date on which tax is actually paid.

6. Time and manner of payment.—

(1) The tax in respect of goods imported into Pakistan shall be charged and paid in the same manner and at the same time as if it were a duty of customs payable under the Customs Act, 1969 and the provisions of the said Act including section 31A thereof, shall, so far as they relate to collection, payment and enforcement of tax under this Act on such goods where no specific provision exists in this Act, apply.

(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, including but not limited to the Protection of Economic Reforms Act, 1992 (XII of 1992), and notwithstanding any decision or judgment of any forum, authority or court whether passed, before or after the promulgation of the Finance Act, 1998 (III of 1998), the provisions of section 31-A of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), referred to in sub-section (1) shall be incorporated in and shall be deemed to have always been so incorporated in this Act and no person shall be entitled to any exemption from or adjustment of or refund of tax on account of the absence of such a provision in this Act, or in consequence of any decision or judgment of any forum, authority or court passed on that ground or on the basis of the doctrine of promissory estoppel or on account of any promise or commitment made or understanding given whether in writing or otherwise, by any government department or authority.

(2) The tax in respect of taxable supplies made during a tax period shall be paid by the registered person at the time of filing the return in respect of that period under Chapter-V:

Provided that the Board may, by a notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the tax in respect of all or such classes of supplies (other than zero-rated supplies) of all or such taxable goods, as may be specified in the aforesaid notification, shall be charged, collected and paid in any other way, mode, manner or at time as may be specified therein.

(3) The tax due on taxable supplies shall be paid by any of the following modes, namely:--

- (i) through deposit in a bank designated by the Board; and
- (ii) through such other mode and manner as may be specified by the Board.

7. Determination of tax liability.—

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 8B, for the purpose of determining his tax liability in respect of taxable supplies made during a tax period, a registered person shall, subject to the provisions of section 73, be entitled to deduct input tax paid or payable during the tax period for the purpose of taxable supplies made, or to be made, by him from the output tax that is due from him in respect of that tax period and to make such other adjustments as are specified in Section 9:

Provided that where a registered person did not deduct input tax within the relevant period, he may claim such tax in the return for any of the six succeeding tax periods.

(2) A registered person shall not be entitled to deduct input tax from output tax unless,--

- (i) in case of a claim for input tax in respect of a taxable supply made, he holds a tax invoice in his name and bearing his registration number in respect of such supply for which a return is furnished;
- (ii) in case of goods imported into Pakistan, he holds bill of entry or goods declaration in his name and showing his sales tax registration number, duly cleared by the customs under section 79 or section 104 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969);

- (iii) in case of goods purchased in auction, he holds a treasury challan, in his name and bearing his registration number, showing payment of sales tax;

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Federal Government may, by a special order, subject to such conditions, limitations or restrictions as may be specified therein allow a registered person to deduct input tax paid by him from the output tax determined or to be determined as due from him under this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or rules made thereunder, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, subject to such conditions, limitations or restrictions as may be specified therein, allow a registered person or class of persons to deduct such amount of input tax from the output tax as may be specified in the said notification.

7A. Levy and collection of tax on specified goods on value addition.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, the Federal Government may specify, by notification in the official Gazette, that sales tax chargeable on the supply of goods of such description or class shall, with such limitations or restrictions as may be prescribed, be levied and collected on the difference between the value of supply for which the goods are acquired and the value of supply for which the goods, either in the same state or on further manufacture, are supplied.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, and subject to the conditions, limitations, restrictions and procedure mentioned therein, specify the minimum value addition required to be declared by certain persons or categories of persons, for supply of goods of such description, or class as may be prescribed, and to waive the requirement of audit or scrutiny of records if such minimum value addition is declared.

8. Tax credit not allowed.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a registered person shall not be entitled to reclaim or deduct input tax paid on --

- (a) the goods or services used or to be used for any purpose other than for taxable supplies made or to be made by him;
- (b) any other goods or services which the Federal Government may, by a notification in the official Gazette, specify;
- (c) the goods under sub-section (5) of section 3:
 - (ca) the goods or services in respect of which sales tax has not been deposited in the Government treasury by the respective supplier;

- (d) fake invoices; and
- (e) purchases made by such registered person, in case he fails to furnish the information required by the Board through a notification issued under sub-section (5) of section 26.

(2) If a registered person deals in taxable and non-taxable supplies, he can reclaim only such proportion of the input tax as is attributable to taxable supplies in such manner as may be specified by the Board.

(3) No person other than a registered person shall make any deduction or reclaim input tax in respect of taxable supplies made or to be made by him.

(4) ()

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or any decision of any Court, for the purposes of this section, no input tax credit shall be allowed to the persons who paid fixed tax under any provisions of this Act as it existed at any time prior to the first day of December, 1998.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or any provision of this Act, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify any goods or class of goods which a registered person cannot supply to any person who is not registered under this Act.

(7) ()

8A. Joint and several liability of registered persons in supply chain where tax unpaid.—

Where a registered person receiving a taxable supply from another registered person is in the knowledge or has reasonable grounds to suspect that some or all of the tax payable in respect of that supply or any previous or subsequent supply of the goods supplied would go unpaid, such person as well as the person making the taxable supply shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of such unpaid amount of tax:

Provided that the Board may by notification in the official gazette, exempt any transaction or transactions from the provisions of this section.

8B. Adjustable input tax.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, in relation to a tax period, a registered person shall not be allowed to adjust input tax in excess of ninety per cent of the output tax for that tax period:

Provided that the tax charged on the acquisition of fixed assets shall be adjustable against the output tax in twelve equal monthly installments []:

Provided further that the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, exclude any person or class of persons from the purview of sub-section (1).

(2) A registered person, subject to section (1), may be allowed adjustment ¹or refund of input tax not allowed under sub-section (1) subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) in the case of registered persons, whose accounts are subject to audit under the Companies Ordinance, 1984, upon furnishing a statement along with annual audited accounts, duly certified by the auditors, showing value additions less than the limit prescribed under sub-section (1) above; or
- (ii) in case of other registered persons, subject to the conditions and restrictions as may be specified by the Board by notification in the official Gazette.

(3) The adjustment or refund of input tax mentioned in sub-section (2), if any, shall be made on yearly basis in the second month following the end of the financial year of the registered person.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and (2), the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, prescribe any other limit of input tax adjustment for any person or class of persons.

(5) Any auditor found guilty of misconduct in furnishing the certificate mentioned in sub-section (2) shall be referred to the Council for disciplinary action under section 20D of Chartered Accountants, Ordinance, 1961 (X of 1961).

9. Debit and credit note.—

Where a registered person has issued a tax invoice in respect of a supply made by him and as a result of cancellation of supply or return of goods or a change in the nature of supply or change in the value of the supply or some such event the amount shown in the tax invoice or the return needs to be modified, the registered person may, subject to such conditions and limitations as the Board may impose, issue a debit or credit note and make corresponding adjustment against output tax in the return.

(10) Refund of input tax.— (1) If the input tax paid by a registered person on taxable purchases made during a tax period exceeds the output tax on account of zero rated local supplies or export made during that tax period, the excess amount of input tax shall be refunded to the registered person not later than forty-five days of filing of refund claim in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette specify:

Provided that in case of excess input tax against supplies other than zero-rated or exports, such excess input tax may be carried forward to the next tax period, alongwith the input tax as is not adjustable in terms of sub-section (1) of section 8B, and shall be treated as input tax for that period and the Board may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may impose, by notification in the official Gazette, prescribe the procedure for refund of such excess input tax;

Provided further that the Board may, from such date and subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may impose, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that refund of input tax against exports shall be paid along with duty drawback at the rates notified in the said notification.

(2) If a registered person is liable to pay any tax, default surcharge or penalty payable under any law administered by the Board, the refund of input tax shall be made after adjustment of unpaid outstanding amount of tax or, as the case may, default surcharge and penalty.

(3) Where there is reason to believe that a person has claimed input tax credit or refund which was not admissible to him, the proceedings against him shall be completed within sixty days. For the purposes of enquiry or audit or investigation regarding admissibility of the refund claim, the period of sixty days may be extended up to one hundred and twenty days by an officer not below the rank of an Additional Collector of Sales Tax and the Board may, for reasons to be recorded in written, extend the aforesaid period which shall in no case exceed nine months.

11. Assessment of Tax.—

(1) Where a person who is required to file a tax return fails to file the return for a tax period by the due date or pays an amount which, for some miscalculation is less than the amount of tax actually payable, an officer of Sales Tax shall, after a notice to show cause to such person, make an order for assessment of tax, including imposition of penalty and default surcharge in accordance with section 33 and 34:

Provided that where a person required to file a tax return files the return after the due date and pays the amount of tax payable in accordance with the tax return alongwith default surcharge and penalty, the notice to show cause and the order of assessment shall abate.

(2) Where a person has not paid the tax due on supplies made by him or has made short payment or has claimed input tax credit or refund which is not admissible under this Act for reasons other than those specified in sub-section (1), an officer of Sales Tax shall make an assessment of sales tax actually payable by that person or determine the amount of tax credit or tax refund which he has unlawfully claimed and shall impose a penalty and charge default surcharge in accordance with section 33 and 34.

(3) (* * *)

(4) No order under this section shall be made by an officer of Sales Tax unless a notice to show cause is given within five years to the person in default specifying the grounds on which it is intended to proceed against him and the officer of Sales Tax shall take into consideration the representation made by such person and provide him with an opportunity of being heard:

Provided that order under this section shall be made within one hundred and twenty days of issuance of show cause notice or within such extended period as the Collector may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, fix provided that such extended period shall in no case exceed ¹sixty days:

²Provided further that any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings or the time taken through adjournment by the petitioner not exceeding thirty days shall be excluded from the computation of the period specified in the first proviso.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), where a registered person fails to file a return, an officer of Sales Tax Department, not below the rank of Assistant Collector, shall subject to such conditions as specified by the Central Board of Revenue, determine the minimum tax liability of the registered person.

11A. Short paid amounts recoverable without notice.—

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Act, where a registered person pays the amount of tax less than the tax due as indicated in his return, the short paid amount of tax along with default surcharge shall be recovered from such person by stopping removal of any goods from his business premises and through attachment of his business bank accounts, without giving him a show cause notice and without prejudice to any other action prescribed under section 48 of this Act or the rules made thereunder:

Provided that no penalty under section 33 of this Act shall be imposed unless a show cause notice is given to such person.

12. Omitted

13. Exemption.—

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3, supply of goods or import of goods specified in the Sixth Schedule shall, subject to such conditions as may be specified by the Federal Government, be exempt from tax under this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1)—

- (a) the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any taxable supplies made or import or supply of any goods or class of goods, from the whole or any part of the tax chargeable under this Act, subject to the conditions and limitations specified therein; and

² Added vide Finance Act, 2009.

The Sales Tax Act, 1990

(b) the Board may, by special order in each case stating the reasons, exempt any import or supply of goods of such description or class, as may be specified from the payment of the whole or any part of the tax chargeable under this Act.

(3) The exemption from tax chargeable under sub-section (2) may be allowed from any previous date specified in the notification issued under clause (a) or, as the case may be, order made under clause (b) of that sub-section.

Chapter-IV

BOOK KEEPING AND INVOICING REQUIREMENTS

22. Records.—

(1) A registered person making taxable supplies shall maintain and keep at his business premises or registered office in English or Urdu language the following records of goods purchased, imported and supplies (including zero-rated and exempt supplies) made by him or by his agent acting on his behalf in such form and manner as would permit ready ascertainment of his tax liability during a tax period -

- (a) records of supplies made shall indicate the description, quantity and value of goods, name and address of the person to whom supplies were made and the amount of the tax charged;
- (b) records of goods purchased shall show the description, quantity and value of goods, name, address and registration number of the supplier and the amount of the tax on purchases;
- (c) records of goods imported shall show the description, quantity and value of goods and the amount of tax paid on imports;
- (d) records of zero-rated and exempt supplies;
- (da) double entry sales tax accounts;
- (e) invoices, credit notes, debit notes, bank statements, banking instruments in terms of section 73, inventory records, utility bills, salary and labour bills, rental agreements, sale purchase agreements and lease agreements; and
- (f) such other records as may be specified by the Board:

Provided that the persons paying retail tax shall keep such record as may be specified by the Board.

(1A) Notwithstanding anything in any other law for the time being in force, the Board may require, by notification in the official Gazette, a registered person or class of registered persons to declare and use only as many number of business bank accounts as may be specified by the Board in such notification to make or receive payments on account of purchase and sale transactions for the purpose of this Act or rules made thereunder and to make payment of due tax from such accounts only.

(2) The Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify for any class of taxable persons or any other person registered under this Act to keep such other records for the purposes of this Act.

(2A) The Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify for any class of taxable persons registered under this Act to use such electronic fiscal cash registers as are approved by the Board in the manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Board may, by notification in the official gazette, prescribe the procedure or software for electronically maintenance of records, filing of sales tax returns or refunds and for any other matter or approve any software for electronic maintenance of records and filing of returns or refunds by a person or class of such persons.

(4). The registered persons, whose accounts are subject to audit under the Companies Ordinance, 1984, shall be required to submit a copy of the annual audited accounts, along with a certificate by the auditors certifying the payment of due tax by the registered person.

23. Tax Invoices.-

(1) A registered person making a taxable supply shall issue a serially numbered tax invoice at the time of supply of goods containing the following particulars, namely:-

- (a) name, address and registration number of the supplier;
- (b) name, address and registration number of the recipient;
- (c) date of issue of invoice;
- (d) description and quantity of goods;
- (e) value exclusive of tax;
- (f) amount of sales tax; and
- (ff) ()
- (g) value inclusive of tax:

Provided that the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify such modified invoices for different persons or classes of persons:

Provided further that not more than one tax invoice shall be issued for a taxable supply.

(2) No person other than a registered person or a person paying () retail tax shall issue an invoice under this section.

(3) A registered person making a taxable supply may, subject to such conditions, restrictions and limitations as the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify, issue invoices to another registered person electronically and to the Board as well as to the Collector, as may be specified.

(4) The Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, prescribe the manner and procedure for regulating the issuance and authentication of tax invoices.

24. Retention of record and documents for five years.-

A person who is required to maintain any record or documents under this Act, shall retain the record and documents for a period of five years after the end of the tax period to which such record or documents relate.

25. Access to record, documents, etc.-

(1) A person who is required to maintain any record or documents under this Act or any other law shall, as and when required by an officer of Sales Tax, produce record or documents which are in his possession or control or in the possession or control of his agent; and where such record or documents have been kept on electronic data, he shall allow access to such officer of Sales Tax and use of any machine on which such data is kept.

(2) The officer of Sales Tax, on the basis of the record, obtained under sub-section (1), may, once in a year, conduct audit:

Provided that in case the Collector has information or sufficient evidence showing that such registered person is involved in tax fraud or evasion of tax, he may authorize an officer of sales tax, not below the rank of Assistant Collector, to conduct an inquiry or investigation under section 38:

Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall bar the sales tax officer from conducting audit of the records of the registered person if the same were earlier audited by the office of the Auditor-General of Pakistan;

(3) The Assistant Collector (Audit), shall issue audit observation pointing out the contraventions of the Act or rules, as the case may be, and the amount of tax evaded therein, on the basis of scrutiny of such records, as prescribed under the Act or rules or in any other manner by the Board. The registered person may, within a period of fifteen days of the receipt of audit observation, submit his point of view in writing.

(4) If, within the period prescribed in sub-section (3), no reply is received or the reply furnished by the registered person is found unsatisfactory, the Assistant Collector shall issue an audit report specifying the amount of tax or charge that has not been levied or has been short levied or has been erroneously refunded or any other violation of any provision of Act or rules made thereunder.

(5) Notwithstanding the penalties prescribed in section 33, if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge voluntarily, whenever it comes to his notice, before receipt of notice of audit, no penalty shall be recovered from him:

Provided if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge during the audit, or at any time before issuance of show cause notice in lieu of the audit report, he may deposit the evaded amount of tax, default surcharge under section 34, and twenty five per cent of the penalty payable under section 33:

Provided further that if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge after issuance of show cause notice, he shall deposit the evaded amount of tax, default surcharge under section 34, and full amount of the penalty payable under section 33 and thereafter, the show cause notice, shall stand abated.

25A. Drawing of samples.-

Where an authorized officer of sales tax considers it necessary to take a sample of any goods or raw materials, for the purpose of determining their liability to sales tax or for the purpose of establishing their value or for any other reason, he may remove a minimum quantity of goods or raw materials sufficient to enable a proper examination or analysis to be made. At the time of taking the sample the person in possession of the goods shall be informed and given the opportunity to sign the representative samples, so drawn, and take a corresponding sample for his record. Any sample taken under this section shall be taken against a proper receipt a copy each of which shall be kept in the record by the registered person and the Collectorate.

Chapter-V

RETURNS

26. (*) Return.–

34. Default Surcharge.—

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11, if a registered person does not pay the tax due or any part thereof, whether wilfully or otherwise, in time or in the manner specified under this Act, rules or notifications issued thereunder or claims a tax credit, refund or makes an adjustment which is not admissible to him, or incorrectly applies the rate of zero per cent to supplies made by him, he shall, in addition to the tax due, pay default surcharge at the rate mentioned below:—

- (a) [] the person liable to pay any amount of tax or charge or the amount of refund erroneously made, shall pay default surcharge at the rate of ¹KIBOR plus three per cent per annum of the amount of tax due or the amount of refund erroneously made; and
- (b) Omitted
- (c) in case, the default is on account of tax fraud, the person who has committed tax fraud shall pay default surcharge at the rate of two per cent per month, of the amount of tax evaded or the amount of refund fraudulently claimed, till such time the entire liability including the amount of default surcharge is paid.

(2) For the purpose of calculation of default surcharge,—

- (a) in the case of inadmissible input tax credit or refund, the period of default shall be reckoned from the date of adjustment of such credit or, as the case may be, refund is received; and
- (b) in the case of non-payment of tax or part thereof, the period of default shall be reckoned from the 16th day of a month (following the due date of the tax period to which the default relates) to the day preceding the date on which the tax due is actually paid.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this section tax due does not include the amount of penalty.

34A. Exemption from penalty and default surcharge.--

The Federal Government may, by a notification in the official Gazette, or the Board by a special order published in Gazette for reasons to be recorded in writing, exempt any person or class of persons from payment of the whole or part of the penalty and default surcharge imposed under sections 33 and 34 subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in such notification or, as the case may be, special order.

36. Recovery of tax not levied or short-levied or erroneously refunded.--

(1) Where by reason of some collusion or a deliberate act any tax or charge has not been levied or made or has been short-levied or has been erroneously refunded, the person liable to pay any amount of tax or charge or the amount of refund erroneously made shall be served with a notice, within five years of the relevant date, requiring him to show cause for payment of the amount specified in the notice.

(2) Where, by reason of any inadvertence, error or misconstruction, any tax or charge has not been levied or made or has been short-levied or has been erroneously refunded, the person liable to pay the amount of tax or charge or the amount of refund erroneously made shall be served with a notice within three years of the relevant date, requiring him to show cause for payment of the amount specified in the notice:

Provided that, where a tax or charge has not been levied under this sub-section, the amount of tax shall be recovered as tax fraction of the value of supply.

(3) The officer of Sales Tax empowered in this behalf shall, after considering the objections of the person served with a notice to show cause under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), determine the amount of tax or charge payable by him and such person shall pay the amount so determined.

Provided that order under this section shall be made within one hundred and twenty days of issuance of show cause notice or within such extended period as the Collector [] may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, fix, provided that such extended period shall in no case exceed ¹sixty days:

²Provided further that any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings or the time taken through adjournment by the petitioner not exceeding thirty days shall be excluded from the computation of the periods specified in the first proviso". []

(4) For the purpose of this section, the expression "relevant date" means--

- (a) the time of payment of tax or charge as provided under section 6; and
- (b) in a case where tax or charge has been erroneously refunded, the date of its refund.

37. Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents in inquiries under the Act.--

(1) Any officer of sales tax shall have powers to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary either to tender evidence or to produce documents or any other thing in any inquiry which such officer is making for any of the purposes of this Act.

² Inserted vide Finance bill 2009.

(2) Any person summoned under sub-section (1) shall be bound to attend either in person or by an authorised agent, as the officer of sales tax may direct;

Provided that a person who is exempt from personal appearance in a court under section 132 and 133 of the Code of Civil Procedure (V of 1908), shall not be required to appear in person.

(3) Any inquiry before an officer of sales tax shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of section 193 and 228 of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860).

37A. Power to arrest and prosecute.--

(1) An officer of Sales Tax, not below the rank of an Assistant Collector of Sales Tax or any other officer of equal rank authorised by the Board in this behalf, who on the basis of material evidence has reason to believe that any person has committed a tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act] [], may cause arrest of such person.

(2) All arrests made under this Act shall be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(3) []

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) to subsection (3) or any other provision of this Act, where any person has committed a tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act, the Collector may, either before or after the institution of any proceedings for recovery of tax, compound the offence if such person pays the amount of tax due alongwith such default surcharge and penalty as is determined under the provisions of this Act.

(5) Where the person suspected of tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act is a company, every director or officer of that company whom the authorised officer has reason to believe is personally responsible for actions of the company contributing the tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act shall be liable to arrest; provided that any arrest under this sub-section shall not absolve the company from the liabilities of payment of tax, default surcharge and penalty imposed under this Act.

37B. Procedure to be followed on arrest of a person.--

(1) When a Sales Tax Officer authorised in this behalf arrests a person under Section 37A, he shall immediately intimate the fact of the arrest of that person to the Special Judge who may direct such Officer to produce that person at such time and place and on such date as the Special Judge considers expedient and such Officer shall act accordingly.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the sub-section (1), any person arrested under this Act shall be produced before the Special Judge or, if there is no Special Judge within a reasonable distance, to the nearest Judicial

Magistrate within twenty-four hours of such arrest, excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Court of the Special Judge or, as the case may be, of such Magistrate.

(3) When any person is produced under sub-section (2) before the Special Judge, he may, on the request of such person, after perusing the record, if any and after giving the prosecution an opportunity of being heard, admit him to bail on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, or refuse to admit him to bail and direct his detention at such place as he deems fit:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude the Special Judge from cancelling the bail of any such person at a subsequent stage if, for any reason, he considers such cancellation necessary, but before passing such order he shall afford such person an opportunity of being heard, unless for reasons to be recorded he considered that the affording of such opportunity shall defeat the purpose of this Act.

(4) When such person is produced under sub-section (2) before a Judicial Magistrate, such Magistrate may, after authorising his detention in such custody at such place and for such period as he considers necessary or proper for facilitating his earliest production before the Special Judge, direct his production before the Special Judge on a date and time to be fixed by him or direct such person to be forthwith taken to, and produced before, the Special Judge and he shall be so taken.

(5) Nothing in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) shall preclude the Special Judge or the Judicial Magistrate from remanding any such person to the custody of the Sales Tax Officer holding inquiry against that person if such officer makes a request in writing to that effect, and the Special Judge or the Judicial Magistrate, after perusing the record, if any, and hearing such person, is of the opinion that for the completion of inquiry or investigation it is necessary to make such order:

Provided that in no case the period of such custody shall exceed fourteen days.

(6) When any person is arrested under this Act, the Sales Tax Officer shall record the fact of arrest and other relevant particulars in the register specified in sub-section (10) and shall immediately proceed to inquire into the charge against such person and if he completes the inquiry within twenty-four hours of his arrest, excluding the time necessary for journey as aforesaid, he may, after producing such person before the Special Judge or the nearest Judicial Magistrate, make a request for his further detention in his custody.

(7) While holding an inquiry under sub-section (6), the Sales Tax Officer shall exercise the same powers as are exercisable by an officer in charge of a police station under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), but such officer shall exercise such powers subject to the foregoing provisions of this section while holding an inquiry under this Act.

(8) If the Sales Tax Officer, after holding an inquiry as aforesaid, is of the opinion that there is no sufficient evidence or reasonable ground for suspicion against such person, he shall release him on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, and shall direct such person to appear, as and when required, before the Special Judge, and make a report to the Special Judge for the discharge of such person and shall make a full report of the case to his immediate superior.

(9) The Special Judge to whom a report has been made under sub-section (8) may, after the perusal of record of the inquiry, and hearing the prosecution, agree with such report and discharge the accused or, if he is of the opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceedings against such person, proceed with his trial and direct the prosecution to produce evidence.

(10) The Sales Tax Officer empowered to hold inquiry under this section shall maintain a register to be called "Register of Arrests and Detentions" in the prescribed form in which he shall enter the name and other particulars of every person arrested under this Act, together with the time and date of arrest, the details of the information received, the details of things, goods or documents, recovered from his custody, the name of the witnesses and the explanation, if any, given by him and the manner in which the inquiry has been conducted from day to day; and, such register or authenticated copies of its aforesaid entries shall be produced before the Special Judge, whenever such Officer is so directed by him.

(11) After completing the inquiry, the Sales Tax Officer shall, as early as possible, submit to Special Judge a complaint in the same form and manner in which the officer in charge of a police station submits a report, before a court.

(12) Any Magistrate of the first class may record any statement or confession during inquiry under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).

(13) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions to this section, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, authorise any other officer working under the Board to exercise the powers and perform the functions of a Sales Tax Officer under this section, subject to such conditions, if any, that it may deem fit to impose.

37C. Omitted.

38. Authorised officers to have access to premises, stocks, accounts and records.--

(1) Any officer authorised in this behalf by the Board ¹[] shall have free access to business or manufacturing premises, registered office or any other place where any stocks, business records or documents required under this Act are kept or maintained belonging to any registered person or a person liable for registration or whose business activities are covered under this Act or who may be required for any inquiry or investigation in any tax fraud committed by him or his agent or any other person; and such officer may, at any time, inspect the goods, stocks, records, data, documents, correspondence, accounts and statements, utility bills, bank statements, information regarding nature and sources of funds or assets with which his business is financed, and any other records or documents, including those which are required under any of the Federal, Provincial or local laws maintained in any form or mode and may take into his custody such records, statements, diskettes, documents or any part thereof, in original or copies thereof in such form as the authorised officer may deem fit against a signed receipt.

(2) The registered person, his agent or any other person specified in subsection (1) shall be bound to answer any question or furnish such information or explanation as may be asked by the authorised officer.

(3) The department of direct and indirect taxes or any other Government department, local bodies, autonomous bodies, corporations or such other institutions shall supply requisite information and render necessary assistance to the authorised officer in the course of inquiry or investigation under this section.

38A. Power to call for information.—

The Collector may, by notice in writing, require any person, including a banking company, to furnish such information or such statement in connection with any investigation or inquiry in cases of tax fraud, as may be specified in such notice:

Provided that the Collector may require any regulatory authority to provide information concerning the licenses and authorizations issued by it.

38B. Obligation to produce documents and provide information.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, any person required to maintain the record under the Act, on demand by an officer, not below the rank of a Deputy Collector of Sales Tax, by notice in writing, as and when specified in the notice, shall,—

- (a) produce for examination, such documents or records which the officer of Sales Tax considers necessary or relevant to the audit, inquiry or investigation under the Act;
- (b) allow the officer of Sales Tax to take extracts from or make copies of such documents or records; and
- (c) appear before the officer of Sales Tax and answer any question put to him concerning the documents and records relating to the audit or inquiry or investigation referred to in clause (a) above.

(2) An officer of Sales Tax conducting an audit, inquiry or, as the case may be, an investigation under the Act, may require in writing any person, department, company or organization to furnish such information as is held by that person, department, company or organization, which, in the opinion of the officer of Sales Tax, is relevant to such audit, inquiry or investigation.

(3) The Board may require, in writing, any person, department, company or organization, as the case may be, to provide any information or data held by that person, department, company or organization, which, in the opinion of the Board, is required for purposes of formulation of policy or administering the Customs, Sales Tax, Federal Excise or Income Tax.

(4) Every person, department, company or organization shall furnish the information requisitioned by the Board or the officer of Sales Tax under sub-section (2) or (3), within the time specified in the notice issued by the Board or, as the case may be, the officer of Sales Tax.

39. Omitted

40. Searches under warrant-

(1) Where any officer of sales tax has reason to believe that any documents or things which in his opinion, may be useful for, or relevant to, any proceedings under this Act are kept in any place, he may after obtaining a warrant from the magistrate, enter that place and cause a search to be made at any time.

(2) The search made under sub-section (1) shall be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898).

40A. Omitted.

40B. Posting of Sales Tax Officer.--

Subject to such conditions and restrictions, as deemed fit to impose, the Board, may post Officer of Sales Tax to the premises of registered person or class of such persons to monitor production, sale of taxable goods and the stock position:

Provided that if a Collector, on the basis of material evidence, has reason to believe that a registered person is involved in evasion of sales tax or tax fraud, he may, by recording the reason in writing, post an Officer of Sales Tax to the premises of such registered person to monitor production or sale of taxable goods and the stocks position.

45. Power of Adjudication.-

(1) In cases involving assessment of tax, charging of default surcharge, imposition of penalty and recovery of amount erroneously refunded or any other contravention under this Act or the rules made thereunder, the jurisdiction and powers of adjudication of the Sales Tax Officers shall be as follows:-

- (i) Additional Collector Cases falling under sub-section (2) of section 11 and section 36 without any restriction as to the amount of tax involved or amount erroneously refunded.
- (ii) Deputy Collector (a) Cases falling under sub-section (1) of section 11.
(b) Cases falling under sub-section (2) of section 11 and section 36 provided that the amount of tax involved or the amount erroneously refunded exceeds one million rupees, but does not exceed two and a half million rupees.
- (iii) Assistant Collector Cases falling under sub-section (2) of section 11 and section 36 provided that the amount of tax involved or the amount erroneously refunded exceeds ten thousand rupees, but does not exceed one million rupees.
- (iv) Superintendent Cases falling under sub-section (2) of section 11 and section 36 provided that the amount of tax involved or the amount erroneously refunded does not exceed ten thousand rupees.
- (v) An Officer of Sales tax with any other designation Such cases as may be notified by the Board.

Provided that the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, vary the jurisdiction and powers of any officer of Sales Tax or a class of officers of Sales Tax.

Provided further that the Board shall have powers to regulate the system of adjudication including transfer of cases and extension of time limit in exceptional circumstances.

Explanation. – For the purpose of this section, tax means the principal amount of sales tax other than default surcharge, and in case where only default surcharge is involved, the amount of default surcharge.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4) of section 11 and sub-section (3) of section 36 or any other provision of the Act or any other law for the time being in force and notwithstanding any decision or judgment of any forum, authority or court, the time for adjudication in all the cases pending as on 30th June, 2006, shall be deemed always to have been extended up to 31st December, 2006, from the date on which the time-limit prescribed under sub-section (4) of section 11 and sub-section (3) of section 36, expires.

45A. Power of the Board and Collector to call for records.--

(1) The Board may, of its own motion, call for and examine the record of any departmental proceedings under this Act or the rules made thereunder for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed therein by an Officer of Sales Tax, it may pass such order as it may think fit:

Provided that no order imposing or enhancing any penalty or fine requiring payment of a greater amount of sales tax than the originally levied shall be passed unless the person affected by such order has been given an opportunity of showing cause and of being heard.

(2) No proceeding under this section shall be initiated in a case where an appeal under Section 45B or Section 46 is pending.

(3) No order shall be made under this Section after the expiry of five years from the date of original decision or order of the sub-ordinate officer referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) The Collector may, suo moto, call for and examine the record of any proceeding under this Act or the rules made thereunder for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed by an officer of Sales Tax subordinate to him, and pass such order as he may deem fit.

45B. Appeals.—

(1) Any person, other than the Sales Tax Department, aggrieved by any decision or order passed under sections 10, 11, 36, 45 or 66, by an officer of Sales Tax may, within thirty days of the date of receipt of such decision or order, prefer appeal to the Collector of Sales Tax (Appeals):

Provided that an appeal preferred after the expiry of thirty days may be admitted by the Collector of Sales Tax (Appeals) if he is satisfied that the appellant has sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the specified period:

Provided further that the appeal shall be accompanied by a fee of one thousand rupees to be paid in such manner as the Board may prescribe.

(2) The Collector of Sales Tax (Appeals) may, after giving both parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such order as he thinks fit, confirming, varying, altering, setting aside or annulling the decision or order appealed against:

Provided that such order shall be passed not later than one hundred and twenty days from the date of filing of appeal or within such extended period as the Collector (Appeals) may, for reasons to be recorded in writing fix:

Provided further that such extended period shall, in no case, exceed ¹[Sixty] days:

²Provided further that any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings or the time taken through adjournment by the petitioner not exceeding thirty days shall be excluded from the computation of aforesaid periods”.

(3) In deciding an appeal, the Collector of Sales Tax (Appeals) may make such further inquiry as may be necessary provided that he shall not remand the case for denovo consideration.

(4) (**)

46. Appeals to Appellate Tribunal.–

(1) Any person including an officer of Sales Tax not below the rank of an Additional Collector, aggrieved by any order passed by–

- (a) the Collector of Sales Tax (Appeals) under section 45B,
- (b) the Collector of Sales Tax through adjudication or under any of the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder,
- (c) the Board under section 45A, may, within sixty days of the receipt of such decision or order, prefer appeal to the Appellate Tribunal.

³ (2) The Appellate Tribunal may admit, hear and dispose of the appeal as per procedure laid down in sections 194-A, 194-B and 194-C of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), and rules made thereunder.

47. Reference to the High Court.—

(1) Within ninety days of the communication of the order of the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (5) of section 46, the aggrieved person or any officer of Sales Tax not below the rank of an Additional Collector, authorized by the Collector may prefer an application in the prescribed form along with a statement of the case to the High Court, stating any question of law arising out of such order.

(2) The statement to the High Court referred to in sub-section (1), shall set out the facts, the determination of the Appellate Tribunal and the question of law, which arises out of its order.

(3) Where, on an application made under sub-section (1), the High Court is satisfied that a question of law arises out of the order referred to in sub-section (1), may proceed to hear the case.

(4) A reference to the High Court under this section shall be heard by a bench of not less than two judges of the High Court and, in respect of the reference, the provisions of section 98 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908) shall apply, so far as may be, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

(5) The High Court upon hearing a reference under this section shall pass the question of law raised by the reference and deliver judgment thereon specifying the grounds on which such judgment is based and the order of the Tribunal shall stand modified accordingly. The Court shall send a copy of the judgment under the seal of the Court to the Appellate Tribunal.

(6) The cost of any reference to the High Court shall be in the discretion of the Court.

(7) Notwithstanding that a reference has been made to the High Court, the tax shall be payable in accordance with the order of the Appellate Tribunal:

Provided that, if the amount of tax is reduced as a result of the judgment in the reference by the High Court, and amount of tax found refundable by the High Court, the High Court may on application by an Additional Collector authorized by the Collector within thirty days of the receipt of the judgment of the High Court that he intends to seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, make an order authorizing the Collector to postpone the refund until the disposal of the appeal by the Supreme Court.

(8) Where recovery of tax has been stayed by the High Court by an order, such order shall cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of six months following the day on which it is made unless the reference is decided, or such order is withdrawn, by the High Court earlier.

(9) Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), shall apply to an application made to the High Court under sub-section (1).

(10) An application under sub-section (1) by a person other than the Additional Collector authorized by the Collector shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred rupees.

(11) Notwithstanding anything contained in any provision of this Act, where any reference or appeal was filed with the approval of Collector by the officer of lower rank than the Collector, and the reference or appeal is pending before an appellate forum or the Court, such reference or appeal shall always be deemed to have been so filed by the Collector.

47A Alternative dispute resolution.—

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, or the rules made thereunder, any registered person aggrieved in connection with any dispute pertaining to:—

- (a) the liability of tax against the registered person, or admissibility of refunds, as the case may be;
- (b) the extent of waiver of default surcharge and penalty;
- (c) the quantum of input tax admissible in terms of sub-section (3) of section 7;
- (d) relaxation of any procedural or technical irregularities and condonation of any prescribed time limitation; and
- (e) any other specific relief required to resolve the dispute, may apply to the Board for the appointment of a committee for the resolution of any hardship or dispute mentioned in detail in the application, which is under litigation in any Court of Law or an Appellate authority, except in the cases where first information reports (FIRs) have been lodged under the Act or criminal proceedings initiated or where interpretation of question of law having larger revenue impact in the opinion of the Federal Board of Revenue is involved, may apply to the Federal Board of Revenue for the appointment of a committee for the resolution of dispute in appeal and only such application may be entertained for dispute resolution under the provisions of this section.

(2) The Board may, after examination of the application of a registered person, appoint a committee within thirty days of receipt of such application in the Board, consisting of an officer of sales tax not below the rank of an Additional Collector and two persons from the notified panel consisting of retired Judges not below District and Sessions Judge, chartered or cost accountants, advocates, representatives of trade bodies or associations, or any other reputable taxpayers, for the resolution of dispute.

¹ (3) The committee constituted under sub-section (2) shall examine the issue and may if it deems fit, conduct inquiry, seek expert opinion, direct any officer of the sales tax or any other person to conduct an audit and shall make recommendations within ninety days of its constitution in respect of the dispute. If the committee fails to make recommendations with the said period the Board shall dissolve the committee and constitute a new committee which shall decide the matter within a further period of ninety days. If after the expiry of that period the dispute is not resolved the matter shall be taken up by the appropriate forum for decision.

- (f) where the person is the Federal Government, any individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds on behalf of the Federal Government; or
- (g) where the person is a public international organization, or a foreign government or political sub-division of a foreign government, any individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds in Pakistan on behalf of the organization, government, or political subdivision of the government.

(2) Where the Court of Wards, the Administrator General, the Official Trustee, or any receiver or manager appointed by, or under, any order of a Court receives or is entitled to receive income on behalf, or for the benefit of any person, such Court of Wards, Administrator General, Official Trustee, receiver, or manager shall be the representative of the person for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Subject to sub-section (4), where a person is a non-resident person, the representative of the persons for the purpose of this Act for a tax year shall be any person in Pakistan—

- (a) who is employed by, or on behalf of, the non-resident person;
- (b) who has any business connection with the non-resident person;
- (c) from or through whom the non-resident person is in receipt of any income, whether directly or indirectly;
- (d) who holds, or controls the receipt or disposal of any money belonging to the non-resident person;
- (e) who is the trustee of the non-resident person; or
- (f) who is declared by the Collector by an order in writing to be the representative of the non-resident person.

(4) No person shall be declared as the representative of a non-resident person unless the person has been given an opportunity by the Collector of being heard.

58B. Liability and obligations of representatives.—(1) Every representative of a person shall be responsible for performing any duties or obligations imposed by or under this Act on the person, including the payment of tax.

(2) Subject to section 58 and sub-section (5) of this section, any tax that, by virtue of sub-section (1), is payable by a representative of a registered person shall be recoverable from the representative only to the extent of any assets of the registered person that are in the possession or under the control of the representative.

(3) Every representative of a registered person who pays any tax owing by the registered person shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from the registered person or to retain the amount so paid out of any moneys of the registered person that are in the representative's possession or under the representative's control.

(4) Any representative, or any person who apprehends that he may be assessed as a representative, may retain out of any money payable by him to the person on whose behalf he is liable to pay tax (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "principal"), a sum equal to his estimated liability under this Act, and in the event of disagreement between the principal and such a representative or a person as to the amount to be so retained, such representative or person may obtain from the Collector a certificate stating the amount to be so retained pending final determination of the tax liability, and the certificate so obtained shall be his authority for retaining that amount.

(5) Every representative shall be personally liable for the payment of any tax due by the representative in a representative capacity if, while the amount remains unpaid, the representative—

- (a) alienates, charges or disposes of any moneys received or accrued in respect of which the tax is payable; or
- (b) disposes of or parts with any moneys or funds belonging to the registered person that is in the possession of the representative or which comes to the representative after the tax is payable, if such tax could legally have been paid from or out of such moneys or funds.

(6) Nothing in this section shall relieve any person from performing any duties imposed by or under this Act on the person which the representative of the person has failed to perform.

59. Tax paid on stocks acquired before registration.--

The tax paid on goods purchased by a person who is subsequently required to be registered under section 14 due to new liabilities or levies or gets voluntary registration under this Act or the rules made thereunder, shall be treated as input tax, provided that such goods were purchased by him from a registered person against an invoice issued under section 23 during a period of thirty days before making an application for registration and constitute his verifiable unsold stock on the date of compulsory registration or on the date of application for registration or for voluntary registration:

Provided that where a person imports goods, the tax paid by him thereon during a period of ninety days before making an application for registration shall be treated as an input tax subject to the condition that he holds the bill of entry relating to such goods and also that these are verifiable unsold or un-consumed stocks on the date of compulsory registration or on the date of application for registration or for voluntary registration.

60. Powers to deliver certain goods without payment of tax.--

Subject to such conditions, limitations or restrictions as it thinks fit Federal Government may authorise the import of goods or class of goods, without payment of the whole or any part of the tax payable thereon to the following persons, namely:-

- (i) registered importers importing such goods temporarily with a view to subsequent exportation;
- (ii) registered manufacturer-cum-exporters who import raw materials and intermediary products for further manufacture of goods meant for export;
- (iii) (* * *)

61. Repayment of tax in certain cases.--

Subject to such conditions, limitations or restrictions as it thinks fit to impose, the Board may authorise the repayment in whole or in part of the tax paid on any goods of such class or description as it may determine, which have been used in the production, manufacture, processing, repair or refitting in Pakistan of goods of such class or description as it may determine.

61A. Repayment of tax to persons registered in Azad Jammu and Kashmir.—Subject to such conditions, limitations or restrictions as it may deem fit to impose, the Board may authorize the repayment in whole or in part of the input tax paid on any goods acquired in or imported into Pakistan by the persons registered in Azad Jammu and Kashmir as are engaged in making of zero-rated supplies.”;

62. Drawback allowable on re-export.--

When any goods which have been imported into Pakistan and on which tax has been paid on importation are re-exported outside Pakistan and such goods are capable of being identified, seven-eighth of such tax shall, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, be repaid as drawback, and the provisions of Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), relating to drawback of customs duties shall, so far as may apply to such tax, as they apply for the purposes of that Act:

Provided that no such drawback shall be repaid unless the re-export is made within a period of two years from the date of importation as shown in the records of the Custom House:

Provided further that the Board may, on sufficient cause being shown, in any case extend the said period by a further period of one year.

63. Drawback on goods taken into use between importation and re-exportation.

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 62, the repayment of sales tax as drawback in respect of goods which have been taken into use between importation and re-exportation shall be subject to such orders, conditions or limitations as may be passed or imposed by the Board in each case -

- (a) modifying the amount of tax which shall be repaid as drawback on any such goods or class of goods; or
- (b) prohibiting the repayment of tax as drawback on any such goods or class of goods; or
- (c) varying the condition for the grant of drawback on any such goods or class of such goods by restricting the period after importation within which the goods must be re-exported.

64. Power to declare what goods are identifiable and to prohibit drawback in case of specified foreign territory.--

The Federal Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, prohibit the payment of drawback upon the exportation of goods or any specified goods or class of goods to any specified foreign port or territory.

65. Exemption of tax not levied or short levied as a result of general practice.--

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if in respect of any supply the Federal Government is satisfied that inadvertently and as a general practice:-

- (a) tax has not been charged in any area on any supply which was otherwise taxable, or according to the said practice the amount charged was less than the amount that should have actually been charged;
- (b) the registered person did not recover any tax prior to the date it was discovered that the supply was liable to tax; and
- (c) the registered person started paying the tax from the date when it was found that the supply was chargeable to tax;

It may, by a notification in the official Gazette, direct that the tax not levied or short levied as a result of that inadvertent practice, shall not be required to be paid for the period prior to the discovery of such inadvertent practice.

66. Refund to be claimed within one year.--

No refund of tax claimed to have been paid or over paid through inadvertence, error or misconstruction or refund on account of input adjustment not claimed within the relevant tax period, shall be allowed, unless the claim is made within one year of the date of payment:

Provided that in a case where a registered person did not deduct input tax within the relevant tax period, the Collector may, after satisfying himself that input tax adjustment is due and admissible, allow the registered person to take such adjustment in the tax period as specified by the Collector:

Provided further that in a case where the refund has become due on account of any decision or judgement of any officer of sales tax or court or the Tribunal, the period of one year shall be reckoned from the date of judgement or decision of such officer, court or Tribunal:

Provided further that the application or claim filed under this section shall be disposed of within a period not exceeding ninety days from the date of filing of such application or claim.

67. Delayed Refund.--

Where a refund due under section 10 is not made within the time specified in this behalf, there shall be paid to the claimant in addition to the amount of refund due to him, a further sum equal to ¹KIBOR per annum of the amount of refund due, from the date following the expiry of the time specified as aforesaid, to the day preceding the day of payment of refund:

Provided that where there is reason to believe that a person has claimed the refund which is not admissible to him, the provision regarding the payment of such additional amount shall not apply till the investigation of the claim is completed and the claim is either accepted or rejected.

68. Liability of the registered person for the acts of his agent.--

When any person is expressly or impliedly authorised by a registered person to be his agent for all or any of the purposes of this Act, the registered person shall be responsible for the act done by his agent.

69. Issuance of duplicate of sales tax documents.—An officer of sales tax not below the rank of Assistant Collector may, on payment of one hundred rupees, issue an attested duplicate of any sales tax document as is available with the department or has been filed under this Act or rules made thereunder to a relevant registered person applying for the same.

70. Computation of limitation period.--

In computing the period of limitation prescribed for any appeal or application under this Act, the day on which the order complained of was served and, if the concerned person was not furnished with a copy of the order, the time requisite for obtaining a copy of such order shall be excluded.
